

Bible Reading Plan 2025

March 2025 - Men and Women of God

God's people have always been called to do hard things. Throughout Biblical history, men and women of God have stood up to lead, sometimes reluctantly and sometimes willingly. People like Job, Ruth, Daniel and Esther, among others, were used by God to save the lives of God's people or be an example for others to follow. What they went through or accomplished with God's help was not easy but hard. And yet God was glorified through their hardship because they stood firm in their faith and never gave up hope. We can learn from them by living out the image of God in us by doing what He has called each of us to do. Of course, Jesus is our ultimate example of this as these looked to Him as their future Hope.
